PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Saints,

We all struggle with worry to one extent or another. Anxiety finds sustenance in insecurity, which in turn feeds off of distrust, the original sin with which we're all marked.

Anxiety likes to live rent-free in our minds and hearts, and it's a terrible tenant: dishonest, disheveled, and utterly disinterested in our good. In fact, it's so powerful that many of us need expert help loosening its grip on our lives. In concert with any therapeutic remedies we might need, Saint Paul gives us another practical way to evict anxiety. By replacing it with thoughts of truth, honor, justice, purity, loveliness, and graciousness, we begin to secure the perimeter of our hearts and minds with the peace of God himself.

In the Peace of Christ,

Father Daniel

WHAT OLMC PARENTS ARE SAYING ABOUT LGA

"As parents of a recent graduate from Lumen Gentium Academy and two other students currently enrolled, we have seen first hand the academic, moral, and spiritual formation provided by the school and could not be more proud of the education our children are receiving. Lumen Gentium students are guided through a singularly excellent curriculum by a second-to-none faculty and are regularly given opportunities to bring their education to life in ways simply not available at any other institution. Importantly, our graduate shared with us that he believes he feels well prepared by his Lumen Gentium education for the rigorous course of study he has undertaken at college. In our experience, Lumen Gentium is providing an education that is both timeless in scope and urgently needed now—both by our children and the world they will encounter. We are incredibly grateful for the gift LGA has been for our family." -Seamus & Jean F.

"Throughout our first year at OLMC, we worried that it couldn't possibly deliver on its promise to help each individual child flourish. But what you see is what you get. What we've seen are real families—messy, imperfect, often overwhelmed, always trying. We've seen real teachers—kind, dedicated, empathetic, and loving. We've seen a pastor and administrators who show Jesus's face to the world and not their own. And we've seen hundreds of good-hearted kids. It was so transformative that our high school student decided to switch schools to attend LGA this year, and it's been a joy to watch him light up from within. Every kid—every family—deserves a place like OLMC." -Jonathan & Shannon L.

"What we want for our kids is the ability to 'test everything, retain what is good.' At OLMC School, they've learned that their questions are important, so we're excited they have the opportunity to continue this spirited inquiry at LGA as well." -Andrew & Theresa M.

"For the mind does not require filling like a bottle, but rather, like wood, it only requires kindling to create in it an impulse to think independently and an ardent desire for the truth"
—Plutarch

SAINT JOHN XXIII, POPE

Feast Day | October 11

Saint John XIII was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli on November 25, 1881, in a small village in Italy. He was ordained in 1904 and later earned a doctorate in canon law. During World War I he served as a stretcher-bearer and chaplain for the Italian army. Beginning in 1925 he served as a Vatican diplomat, first in Bulgaria, then in Greece and Turkey. From 1935 through the Second World War he helped save thousands of Jewish people. In 1944 he was named papal nuncio to France. He was named cardinal and appointed patriarch of Venice in 1953. A quiet pastoral life passing into retirement, however, was not in God's plan for the saint.

Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli was elected Pope in 1958 and took the name John. His papacy was short, but full of action. He transformed the Vatican, calling for openness, a spirit of ecumenism, and the setting aside of politics. He called the Second Vatican Council in the fall of 1962, the first meeting of its kind in almost a century, setting the agenda to work for the spiritual regeneration of the Church. His efforts changed the face of the Catholic Church. At the same time, he worked diligently and publicly to ease tensions during the Cuban missile crisis, pleading with leaders for the end of the Cold War.

Saint John XXIII's kindness, sense of pastoral care, and works of reconciliation and peacemaking made him beloved not only to Catholics but to people around the world. He died on June 3, 1963. He was beatified in 2000 by St. John Paul II, and canonized by Pope Francis in 2014.
