

31ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“As for you, do not be called ‘Rabbi.’ You have but one teacher, and you are all brothers. Call no one on earth your father; you have but one Father in heaven. Do not be called ‘Master’; you have but one master, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant.” - Mt 23:8-11

PASTOR'S NOTE

Dear Saints,

“Whoever humbles himself will be exalted.” It’s one of the great paradoxes of our faith, and a stark contradiction to the me-first mentality that dominates our culture. So how can it be true? Put simply, because that’s how God set it up. St. Bonaventure once said that “God’s power is his humility; God’s strength is his weakness; God’s greatness is his lowliness.” Jesus’s most wretched and humiliating moment became the instrument of his greatest accomplishment - the salvation of the world.

He invites us to become instruments of that saving power too, but we have to adopt his meek and humble heart to get it done. It’s a lifelong battle, because pride is forever tempting us with one trick or another. But the saints who have gone before us offer many practical ways to develop habits of humility. To name just a few:

- Speak as little as possible about yourself
- Don’t preoccupy yourself with other people’s affairs, and don’t dwell on others’ faults
- Accept small irritations with good humor and unwarranted criticism without pushback
- Accept disfavor, derision, and disregard
- Do not seek to be admired and loved
- Do not protect yourself behind your own dignity

It’s a daunting list, but we can progress little by little and support each other on the way of humility, and so become better conduits of God’s love — our exalted reward.

Christ’s Peace,

Father Daniel

2023 DIOCESAN MINISTRIES APPEAL

"I Have Called You By Name"

One of the important programs that receives funding from the Diocesan Ministries Appeal is Nazareth Village, our diocesan home for retired priests. The priests who live at Nazareth Village have faithfully served our diocese for many years, and many continue to celebrate Mass at local parishes. In addition, the Appeal helps fund the formation of our seminarians as they prepare for a lifetime of service to our parishioners now and for generations to come.

Please join us in gratitude by recognizing those priests who have dedicated years of service to our families and those who will begin their service to the Lord and his Church. Scan the QR code or visit www.2023appeal.org to make a gift today.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

Our Stephen Ministry Family Is Growing!

Congratulations to our newly commissioned Stephen Ministers: Ivan Arocho, Maria Bednar, Rebecca Bremberg, Carolyn Carrazza, Jeannie Hubley, Andy MacDonald, Grace Ryerson, and Whitney Sobala.

Stephen Ministry is a caring ministry. Stephen Ministers are lay men and women, parishioners of OLMC Church, trained to provide confidential high-quality, one-to-one, Christ-centered care to people in our community who may be experiencing life difficulties such as grief, divorce, job loss, chronic or terminal illness, or relocation.

Stephen Ministers come from all walks of life, but they all share a passion for bringing Christ's love and care to people during a time of need. They recognize themselves as the care givers, in the knowledge that God is the cure giver.

If you or someone you know may benefit from the support of a Stephen Minister, please contact the rectory office: admin@olmcbonton.org or 973-334-1017. Brochures with more information are available in the church narthex.

A poster for National Vocation Awareness Week. The title "NATIONAL Vocation AWARENESS WEEK" is at the top in blue and white text. Below it is the date "NOVEMBER 5 - 11, 2023" in a yellow box. The poster features four categories: "CONSECRATED LIFE", "PRIESTHOOD", "HOLY MARRIAGE", and "DEDICATED SINGLE LIFE", each with a small circular image. At the bottom, there is a quote from Pope Benedict XVI: "Each of you has a personal vocation which He has given you for your own joy and sanctity. When a person is conquered by the fire of His gaze, no sacrifice seems too great to follow Him and give Him the best of ourselves. This is what the saints have always done, spreading the light of the Lord ... and transforming the world into a welcoming home for everyone." Below the quote is the text "PRAY FOR VOCATIONS!" and "Pope Benedict XVI".

SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS

Feast Day | November 11

Saint Martin of Tours was born a pagan in what is now Hungary around 316, but he was raised in Italy where his father, a tribune, was posted. At 15 he was compelled to serve in the Roman military, though he was already a catechumen. There is a popular legend that while on campaign the saint cut his cloak in half to share with a cold beggar. That night he dreamed of Jesus and his cloak was restored. He was baptized at 18. Only two years after his baptism, he was released from the military, he had refused his battle pay and to fight saying he was a soldier for Christ. He is the first recognized conscientious objector.

After his release from the military, he became a disciple of Hilary of Poitiers. He worked diligently against the Arian heresy, which denies the divinity of Jesus Christ, and established a community of hermits near Poitiers in 361, the first French monastery.

In 371 he reluctantly became bishop of Tour. Nearby, he founded a second monastery, Marmoutier, because he preferred the life of a monk he retreated often. In 384 there was a popular heresy infecting the Church in Spain, led by the bishop Priscillian and his followers. The emperor Magnus Maximus became involved, ordering the execution of the heretics. Saint Martin opposed the executions and protested the emperor's involvement in Church matters. Unfortunately, the Priscillians were executed anyway.

Saint Martin died in Candes-Saint-Martin, Gaul in 397. He is notably one of the first saints who was not martyred. He is the patron saint of France.
