Dear Family and Friends,

No words can express our deepest gratitude for the outpour of love, support, sympathy, and prayers that were shown to our Papa and to us, his family. We are deeply saddened by his passing, but your kind gestures and support eased our grief. Hence, you lifted our spirits and brought us joy and happiness.

With Love,

Mama Tess, Dobie and Deon, Diane and Danicka, Daphney, Tracy & Tori and Kai

FIRST READING

read by Kristina Espineli

The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead: and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. As gold in the furnace, he proved them, and as sacrificial offerings he took them to himself. Those who trust in him shall understand truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love: Because grace and mercy are with his holy ones and his care is with his elect.
The Word of the Lord.

SECOND READING

read by Mary Ann Martinez

If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn? It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
The Word of the Lord.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Read by Marie DeGuzman

God, the Almighty Father, raised Christ his Son from the dead; with confidence we ask him to save all his people, living and dead.

For Danny, who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that he may now be admitted to the company of the saints.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our brother who ate the body of Christ, the bread of life, that he may be raised up on the last day.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our deceased relatives and friends and for all who have helped us, that they may have their reward of their goodness.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For those who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the family and friends of our brother Danny, that they may be consoled in their grief by the Lord, who wept at the death of his friend, Lazarus.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For all of us assembled here to worship in faith, that we may be gathered together again in God's kingdom.

We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Faith of Our Fathers

Our 'Papa', Danilo Galura Cadatal, was born in Balanga Bataan on May 22, 1944. He had a bachelor's degree in business management at Far Eastern University. He worked as a production manager in the film industry in the Philippines and eventually migrated to the United States with his family in April 1993. He married the love of his life 'Mama', Teresita Malan Cadatal on December 21, 1968. Together, they raised 4 children Dobie, Diane, Daphney and Tracy married to Tori.

They also have 3 beautiful grandchildren
Deon, Danicka and Kai.

Danilo, 'Papa Danny' or 'Kuya Danny' or 'Tito Danny' to many, was a loving and devoted husband and father. He took pride in his family and had always instilled in his children that they should always love and support one another. He was a very caring and supportive brother and uncle, and the truest friend to many. He enjoyed cooking for his family and friends. Sharing his delicious food was a way for him to show his love, care, appreciation, and gratitude to the people that were important to him. His corny jokes and remarks in attempts to make others laugh was his way of showing your importance to him because every shared laughter was a cherished moment. He had a big and generous heart and readily helped people who were in need.

We will truly miss you.

We will love you always and forever Papa.
